DETAILED ACTION

Presently claimed invention is drawn to a solid mixture of a sulfonylurea and an alkylpolyglycoside, their process for preparing formulations and method of controlling undesirable plant growth. Claims 10-18 are pending. All claims are rejected. No claim is allowed. Arguments filed in paper no. 5 have been fully considered but were found persuasive in part. Rejection under 103 is maintained for the same reasons as set forth in our previous office action, others are withdrawn. Unexpected results in Table 3 were considered however; it is unclear why the starting amounts of the active ingredient of the present invention and prior art are different. This is not considered a side-by-side comparison. See 716.02(e). Applicant is requested to explain the data, which clearly show the criticality of the presently claimed invention.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101, which states, "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 10-18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-9 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,482,772. This is a double patenting rejection. Presently claimed invention is drawn to a solid mixture of sulfonylurea and an alkylpolyglycoside, their preparation and method of use for controlling undesirable plant growth, same invention is claimed in US '772.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 10-18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over De Beer et al. (CA 114:57538, abstract of ZA 8,903,661) in view of Garst et al. (WO 95/28410) for the same reasons as set forth in our previous office action.
